AWARE

- A. Anglican -By Denomination
- W. Women -By God's design
- A. Alive -In Jesus Christ
- R. Renewed -In the Holy Spirit
- E. Enriched -For Service

Aware is a retreat for women of all denominations and ages. It is a weekend of spiritual refreshment and challenge. It is a weekend that includes an excellent speaker, small group discussions, worshipful music, fun and fellowship, or the blissful solitude of sitting beside the lake and listening to the loons.

Accommodation

Elim Lodge is a Christian facility located in a beautiful country setting that creates a comfortable cottage atmosphere. Meals are excellent and the staff delightful. The rustic accommodations are relaxing, and peaceful, just right for putting up your feet and chatting over a cup of tea in your cabin, room or by the lakeshore. Be prepared to meet new friends. Your fee covers the cost of this lovely facility. all conference activities, five meals, two nights accommodation, brunch and two snacks. Books and gifts will be available for purchase throughout the weekend.

Ambassador

Diane Morris and her team spread goodwill to everyone throughout the weekend. If this is your first time at AWARE, Diane and her team will ensure that all your needs are met.

You May Want to Bring ...

Bible, umbrella, flashlight, extra pillows and blankets, tea or coffee for your room, notepaper, pen, warm p.j.'s, an instrument (if you have one), campfire chair, fruit for snacks ... etc.

Speaker Dana Fisher

I was born and raised in the Diocese of Niagara, in the town of Oakville where my brother still lives. I have been a priest for 30 years, ordained in Ottawa in 1981. I spent most of my time in the Diocese of Toronto. My doctorate is in adult education for faith and I taught at Trinity College for 12 years. In 1999-2000 I was an intern in the ministry of Spiritual Direction with the Jesuits in Guelph. I have been a speaker with AWARE in the Diocese of Ontario and the Diocese of Toronto. I look forward to being with you in May.

Chaplain

Reverend Elizabeth Green

In January 2011 Rev. Elizabeth Green and her husband Kevin Doonan moved from Millbrook to Barrie Ontario, where Elizabeth is now serving as the Incumbent Priest for the Parish of St. Giles Anglican Church. Elizabeth and Kevin are very happy living in Barrie, and continue to enjoy much of what Barrie and its surrounding area has to offer. as part of her new ministry at St. Giles, Rev. Elizabeth is now developing the art, skills and practice of Biblical Storytelling after attending the first-ever Canadian Festival of Biblical Storytellers, Elizabeth was blessed with the opportunity to attend the International Festival of Biblical Storytellers which was held last August in North Carolina. Biblical Storytelling is a ministry that has taken root and begun to flourish for both Elizabeth and her new congregation at St. Giles. The art and ministry of Biblical Storytelling, as well as all other aspects and duties that come with parish ministry, continue to enrich and inspire Elizabeth as an ongoing pastoral care-giver in the Anglican priesthood. She looks forward to her first AWARE gathering, and to sharing her ministry with us as our chaplain this May.

Worship Team

The worship team is under the leadership of Trish Mills who also sings. She will be accompanied by Catherine Hawley on the flute, Janet Kristensen on keyboard and vocalists Irene Grimason and Anne Kernohan.

For the Taize service we are honoured to have Gwethen Nicholas who will play and sing with the Worship Team.

We welcome these ladies and look forward to their musical leadership.
